KayLee Michelle
Author, Entrepreneur, Entertainer

Greetings from KayLee Michelle and thePinkGroup!
We'd love to collaborate with you!

Who is KayLee Michelle & What's Her Story?

KayLee Michelle is a 12-year-old homeschooled, author, entrepreneur, entertainer, and honor reading student, sharing her interactive adventure-filled books, the Let's Be Friends series. (available in both English and Spanish).

This southern girl with a big heart was inspired to share her adventures with the world after being disappointed about losing a writing contest at school. She was also unhappy that a new student in her class could not make friends as easily as she did. She was especially concerned about kids who moved to new places and needed to make new friends. KayLee Michelle is far from average, as she is very sensitive to and mindful of daily things that kids transition through. She, too, had been the new kid due to family changes.

Her mother, Hashondra, published author and founder of the Manifest A Deliverance Foundation (MAD), encouraged her to turn a not-so-good situation into an opportunity and purpose that would change her life and the lives of others. In MAD, Hashondra encourages participants to 'get MAD the right way,' helping them find ways to channel negative energy into positivity.

KayLee Michelle believes that anyone can achieve anything, no matter if one or two obstacles get in the way. She hopes to encourage other kids to learn and explore the world around them by sharing her adventures.

KayLee Michelle is managed by thePinkGroup and signed by Actor Choice Talent Agency. Her featured guest appearances include public schools, youth development groups, private organizations, religious organizations, podcasts, radio, & television. KayLee has been featured in multiple magazines, both local and worldwide.

KayLee Michelle plans to continue her educational adventures by attending Savannah College of Art and Design (SCAD) to enhance her knowledge of entrepreneurship and the entertainment industry.

We would like to collaborate to continue the journey of making new friends all across the world while inspiring others of all ages. Email contact@thepinkgroupgirls.com or call Hashondra of thePinkGroup at 912-270-9511 to start your adventure.
